BRODHEAD.

Walter Turpin died at his residence here last Friday at 8 o'clock p. m. He had returned a few days before from Richmond, where he had been under the treatment of Drs. Gibson. He underwent an operation about two weeks before, and it was thought that he was improving until early Friday he was taken seriously ill, and lived only a few hours. He is survived by his widow, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Turpin, two sisters, Mrs. A. E. Albright and Mrs. J. W. Tave, of this place, two brothers, Bub Turpin, of this county, and Forest Turpin, of Texas, all of whom were present except the brother in Texas. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. Edgar Allen at the Christian church, after which his remains were laid to rest in the Christian church cemetery. He was a member of the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church. We extend to the bereaved ones much sympathy.—Mr. and Mrs. John Harp moved from the Walter Miller property on Main street to R. S. Martin's property near the new fair grounds.—Mrs. W. P. Rigby visited Mrs. Walter Robins at Mt. Vernon last week.—Mrs. Andy Hiatt died at her home in the Hiatt section, Thursday of last week, and was buried in the Oak Hill cemetery the following afternoon. She leaves her husband, two small children and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.—Mrs. W. P. Rigby is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rigby in Preachersville section.—J. J. Painter, of Lebanon, was with his mother, Mrs. G. E. Painter, last week.—E. J. Hamm, of New Hope, spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hamm, near here, the first of the week.—E. B. Newland was called home from Tellico Plains, Tenn. on account of the seriousness of his baby. His family have measles, but are all improving, except the baby, and as it has developed pneumonia, its recovery is considered doubtful.—Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Griffin, and Lee Arnold, of near Mt. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Griffin, of Mareburg, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Griffin, of the Hiatt section, and Mrs. Hall, of Livingston, attended the funeral of Walter Turpin last Saturday.—Mrs. Linda Benton left for Sweetwater, Tenn. Tuesday night, where she will make her home. We regret that she decided to cast her lot elsewhere, and trust when she turns of her Tennessee home that she will return to Brodhead.—Miss Clyde Watson was the guest of her sister Mrs. Fred Darham last Saturday and Sunday.—John Robins was in Lexington and Frankfort Monday.—Mrs. L. M. Brown, bookkeeper for the Citizens Bank, was visiting relatives and friends in Daville from Saturday until Thursday.—Miss Ella Carson was which resulted in her death, and from which he never recovered. He was seventy one years and a few months old, and had spent about thirty years of his life in Rockcastle, having moved to this county from Pendleton county in the year 1884. He was a faithful member of the Baptist church, and a true christian. We know of no man's life we had rather imitate than that of his. He lived every day as though that was the last day, and his daily life is a living example worthy of following. The Rev. Jesse Bagley of Lancaster, a distant relative, conducted the funeral services at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon after which his body was consigned to the grave beside his wife. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Granville Owens, who is very sick, not able to attend the funeral, and Miss Leva Cherry, one son, J. Thos. Cherry, of Crab Orchard, three grand children and two great grand children.—Co. Atty and Mrs. E. R. Gentry, and Mr. Henry Gentry, of Mt. Vernon, attended the funeral services of John T. Cherry Tuesday.—Tom Woodall and a Miss Cates were married at the home of the bride, near Richmond, the latter part of last week. Tom is a fine young man, and deserves a good woman which we have no doubt he has. We wish them much success.—The following are those leading in their grades for the month just ended: First grade, William Frith; second, Bessie Hicks; third, Nathan Roberts; fourth, Nina Albright; fifth, Chester Wallin; sixth, Elvora Frith; seventh, Shirley Adams; eighth, Bert Storm; ninth, Sue Cable and tenth, Mary Proctor.—Don't forget that Brodhead will have a fair Aug. 12-13-14.

Senator Bradley Strong for Booneway

February 24, 1914.

Mr. H. C. Chappell, Middlesboro, Ky., Dear Sir: I introduced a bill for the appropriation of money to have the Boone Way surveyed. You have doubtless noticed that a bill has passed the Lower House appropriating a large amount of money to be divided among the states for road building. The states agree to put up an equal amount with the Government. I think this bill will pass the Senate and hence the matter of building Boone Way I fear will not be embraced as it would doubtless take the whole amount from the state of Kentucky to build that one road. You may rest assured that I will do all I can to procure the building of the Boone Way.

Very truly,
W. O. BRADLEY,
—Middlesboro Three States.
